

City Council Committees

The Kyle City Council depends on citizen involvement and input in order to made policy decisions for the city. Serving on one of these committees is also a great way to be involved in your community. Fill out the online form to submit your application.

A list of the committees and their descriptions are outlined below. Anyone requesting to be considered for appointment to these committees must complete an application and submit it to the Mayor. The committees shall function in an advisory capacity only to the City Council, and in such advisory capacity shall have the responsibilities and duties as outlined below, as well as any other functions and duties assigned by the City Council.

If you would like to volunteer for a committee, please submit a Volunteer Application Form.
