Checkout Policies for Digital Items

Please note the following information information about checking out digital materials:

- · You may check out 5 items at time
- You may reserve up to 5 items.
- The check out period is 2 weeks.
- If you finish a book, you usually can return it immediately.
- There's no need to worry about fines or late fees since items are automatically checked in on their expiration dates.
- Digital Items may not be renewed.
- If you're not finished with a digital item by the due date, you will have to check it out again. If it's not available, you may place it on reserve.
- When reserving an item, you will need to provide an email address. You will be notified via email when the item is available.
- For reserve items that become available, you have three days to check out the item. After three days, it's removed from your account.

Web Links

Overdrive Site

Source URL (retrieved on 2013-12-08 23:12): http://www.cityofkyle.com/library/checkout-policies-digital-items