

Public Works Citizen Advisory Committee

The City of Kyle Public Works Department works closely with the Public Works Advisory Committee. This committee is composed of citizens who have an interest in maintaining and enhancing the many services the Public Works Department provides.

The committee normally meets monthly at the Public Works Training room located at the Public Works Office complex. Meetings are open to the public and agendas can be found on the Public Works webpage.

The current roster of committee members is available here.

Source URL (retrieved on 2015-02-01 05:51):

<http://www.cityofkyle.com/publicworks/public-works-citizen-advisory-committee>