Hello,

Yesterday (3/20/2013) afternoon officer Garcia pulled me over for speeding. When he came to the window he asked if there was any reason I was in such a hurry. Shaking, I told him I was on my way to Brackenridg to see my friend that was just in a motorcycle accident. He immediately went into over drive, he did not dilly dally or lecture me, or roll his eyes (all things that I have encountered with previous officers). Instead, he quickly wrote an electronic warning, made sure that I was okay to drive (not in mid panic attack) and released me, wishing my friend all the best and reminding me of the irony of breaking traffic laws while on my way to see a friend injured by someone breaking traffic laws. Though it was only a five minute encounter, Mr. Garcia was a beam of light in an otherwise awful day, and I would like to recognize him for his outstanding character.

Thank you,
Kaitlyn Egan
