There's still time to get your Blue Santa on!

Calling all Santa's helpers! Come join the fun with the Kyle Blue Santa team. Sponsored by the Kyle Police Employees Association, Blue Santa provides toy, bikes and other gifts to children in the Kyle area who otherwise might not have a very Merry Christmas. The group also put together 40 holiday meal boxes this year.

The big wrapping event is today (Friday, Dec. 18) from 10 a.m.-7 p.m. - then Santa arrives and helps distribute the presents until 9 p.m. Event takes place at Wallace Middle School in Kyle.

Volunteers of all ages are welcome to help sort and wrap gifts. Makes a great family volunteer outing!

Historic Train Depot restoration chugging along

After many years, there is light at the end of the tunnel. The restoration of the Historic Train Depot in downtown Kyle is on its way to completion. While no date has been set for the grand re-opening, city officials say the remodeling should be completed in early 2016.

The depot will serve as a museum and history center, which will be operated by the Hays County Historical Commission.
