Annexation info

The City of Kyle recently began annexation procedures for a portion of land located in Kyle's extraterritorial jurisdiction (ETJ). Property owners inside the proposed annexation area received their notice of annexation via certified letter in February.

Those slated for annexation who currently qualify for a state tax exemption for certain land uses are eligible to enter into a development agreement with the city to conditionally exempt their property from the terms of full municipal annexation.

Should you wish to exempt your property from full annexation, please make your request known by March 25. Visit www.cityofkyle.com to learn more and see answers to FAQs.

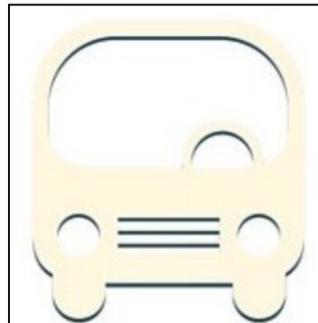

Pilot transportation program

Through an agreement with Kyle/Buda Taxi, Kyle residents have a new transportation option which began March 15.

The City of Kyle's new pilot transportation program will offer rides to local residents on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The service is available to anyone residing within the city limits.

Contact Kyle/Buda Taxi at 512-902-2272 one day in advance to reserve a seat.

Visit www.cityofkyle.com to learn more about the program including pricing and other information.

It's an eBook bonanza!

Love to read on your eBook device but don't love the prices? We bet you didn't know that the Kyle Public Library belongs to the Central Texas Digital Consortium.

And how does that help me, you ask? Well with more 10,000 audio & eBooks for readers of all ages, you can download free eBooks with your library membership!

All you need is a valid Kyle Public Library Card with a PIN number. Come get one today! If you don't already have a library membership, you can get one of those, too.

You can also follow the library Facebook and be first in line for weekly bestseller purchases.

Here are just two of the library's latest eBook acquisitions:

Come see an old-fashioned chute out

Law enforcement agencies from across the country are set to battle it out next month.

They will converge at the Capitol of Texas Police Motorcycle Chute Out April 1 and April 2 at Cabela's in Buda. This is a family-friendly event where 120 police motorcycle operators compete in a series of challenges.

Kyle Police Department will again have a motorcycle officer in the competition, which is organized by the Travis County Sheriff's Office.

Several sponsorship opportunities are also available for local businesses, including gift bags with promotional SWAG, coupons and other materials.

Monies raised from the event benefit the Center for Child Protection & the Sunshine Kids Foundation. Visit <https://www.tcsheiff.org/community/events> to learn more.

Art the Halls deadline this week

Don't let those empty walls at Kyle City Hall and Kyle Public Library go one more day without a reason to smile. Submit your works of art to "Art the Halls" and help beautify Kyle.
