

currently for accountability of misconduct. He mentioned 8 can't wait banning chokeholds, strangleholds, and requirement of officers to deescalate situations. He talked about 911 calls and the training thereof. He asked, will the City Council comment to embrace in alternatives in traditional policing and mentioned unarmed intervention teams to foster a healthy, safe, and equitable community. He said he hopes for dialogue and said the city can do something right now. Mr. Johnson mentioned being pleased of a recent statement he said made by Chief Barnett, that their success was not determined by the number of arrests that are made, but by their relationship with the community. Mr. Johnson talked about entities that implement the 8 can't wait policy having 72 percent less deaths compared to people who do not have these policies in place.
